NJ Realtors Educational Foundation Awards Over $50,000 in Scholarship Money

Hamilton, N.J. (June 15, 2016) — Last week, the New Jersey Realtors Educational Foundation was proud to award 41 deserving students a total of more than $50,000 in scholarships. The students were recognized at an NJ Realtors board of directors meeting on Tuesday, June 7 at the Pines Manor in Edison.

“Every year, the trustees have the distinct pleasure of getting to know dozens of accomplished students through the application process,” said Judy Lewis, 2016 President of the NJ Realtors Education Foundation. “When our biggest problem is having a hard time making scholarship selections, you know the pool of applicants is full of inspiring, intelligent students.”

Criteria for selection include academic achievements, financial need, interest in real estate endeavors, and contributions to family, school and communities. High school seniors who will be attending an undergraduate four-year institution, or students currently enrolled in an undergraduate four-year institution are eligible. In addition, they must be, or be related to, a New Jersey Realtor.

“As an association, we look forward to recognizing these students every year and congratulating them on their educational path,” said Tg Glazer, 2016 President of New Jersey Realtors.
