

INSTALLATION/OATH OF OFFICE

The Charge:

The office to which you have been elected is one of dignity and importance. You are about to assume a role that will no longer classify you as private citizens, but public servants. You are now identified as officers of your organization, committed to the best interest of the public and to the welfare of your members.

The secret of living is the art of giving, and so to you this year comes the privilege of giving, and learning that lasting happiness comes through the investment of your time, and your unselfish interest in the lives of others.

OATH OF OFFICE

INSTALLING OFFICER:

(To those being installed): Will you raise your right hand.

INSTALLING OFFICER:

Do you solemnly and sincerely promise and swear that you will administer the office to which you have been elected to the best of your ability and judgment, in conformity with the Constitution and Bylaws of your Board, the State, and National Associations;

That you will adhere to and enforce the Code of Ethics of the REALTOR® Organization;

That you will uphold and enforce the provisions of the New Jersey State License Law and the rules and regulations of the New Jersey Real Estate Commission;

That you will, in all your acts, be governed by the principles of honesty, justice and fair play, and in every manner possible, endeavor to promote and safeguard the best interest of the citizens of your State, the high purposes of the Association, and the welfare of its membership.

INSTALLING OFFICER:

Do you subscribe?

Answer: I do

(You may lower your hand)

By virtue of the authority conferred upon me by the New Jersey REALTORS®, I do hereby proclaim each of you as duly elected and officially installed into _____.
